The European Union is made up of 27 Member States who have decided to gradually link together their know-how, resources and destinies. Together, during a period of enlargement of 50 years, they have built a zone of stability, democracy and sustainable development whilst maintaining cultural diversity, tolerance and individual freedoms.

The European Union is committed to sharing its achievements and its values with countries and peoples beyond its borders.

LAWYERS IN ADR

Overview

LAWYERS IN ADR is the shared name of three connected, EU funded projects, to promote the knowledge and the use of Directive 2008/52/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 May 2008 on certain aspects of mediation in civil and commercial matters.

Specific Objectives

In particular, the three projects aim to:

- remove impediments for EU lawyers to actively resort to mediation;
- help set common standards for mediation advocacy, especially for cross border cases;
- facilitate cooperation and sharing of know-how among lawyers from EU countries in the field of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR).

Key Activities

LAWYERS IN ADR finances a wide array of ADR related activities, including:

- Training courses on civil and commercial mediation for EU lawyers;
- Video on cross-border mediation, translated into 23 EU languages;
- Survey on data gathering to quantify the cost of not using mediation;
- Book on mediation advocacy in the EU;
- Website with articles, video clips, rules, regulations and other ADR tools;
- International Conference to present the projects' results and impact.

About “Civil Justice” 2007-2013

The Specific Programme “Civil Justice” 2007-2013, established by the European Parliament and the Council (Decision N°1149/2007/EC), aims to promote judicial cooperation among the 27 EU Member States. Activities funded under the Programme are meant to:

- contribute to the creation of a genuine European area of justice in civil matters based on mutual recognition and mutual confidence;
- encourage the elimination of obstacles to the good functioning of cross-border civil proceedings in the Member States;
- improve the daily life of individuals and businesses by enabling them to assert their rights throughout the European Union, notably by fostering access to justice;
- improve the contacts, exchange of information and networking between judicial and administrative authorities and the legal professions.
